How to fill out consignment form

Each consignor will fill out a single “cover” consignment sale sheet. Only signed and completed sheets will be accepted. Please review the text and agreement on the sale sheet before signing the terms.

Sales items are split into two categories: Individual and Bulk. Individual items are listed one item to a line with a unique description and price for each item. The bulk item category is useful for things like a large selection of books, where you don’t care to describe each book and just want to set a fixed price per book for every book in a particular box of books.

If you cannot fit your individual items on a single sheet please continue on another individual item sheet. Additional sheets will be attached to the first sheet (the sheet with your contact information) and kept together. Items written in columns or in margins will not be honored. Each bulk item type will require an individual sheet so that we can keep track of each individual sale.

Each individual needs to be marked with a letter/number identifier in addition to a consignor identifier to avoid confusion. Please mark your items ahead of time; there will be a lot of activity during the drop-off period so having this done ahead of time will be helpful.

Prices are fixed at the time of submission with revisions allowed on Saturday at the end of the day and Sunday mid-afternoon. You will be allowed to revise prices to $0 (free) at any time before closing of the consignment on Sunday.

Tips for successful consignment sales:

- Items should have prices clearly labeled.
- Consignment sheets clearly filled out.
- Please indicate if the item is working or not, and if there are any known flaws. Known working items will sell for more.
- Consignment items are sold on an AS-IS basis, and the buyers will be made aware of that.
- Please price your items reasonably; if you price something too high you will probably have to carry it home.
- We might have power available for testing or powering systems up. Assume that an interested buyer will want to power something up to see if it works. If you do not want power applied to an item please let us know.

Consignment will close on Sunday at 5pm, with payouts to follow after. Please see notes on sale sheet for payout details.

PLEASE NOTE: UNSOLD ITEMS NEED TO BE CLAIMED AT THE END OF THE SHOW BEFORE FESTIVAL CLEANUP IS COMPLETE AS PER THE CONSIGNMENT SALE SHEET.

We recommend filling out your consignment consignment sheets before the show to make the drop-off process quicker. Questions? Email info@vcfed.org.
